Step 1:

The login interface consists of two side-by-side panels. The left panel is titled "Log In" and contains fields for "Username" and "Password", a "Remember Me" checkbox, and a "Log In" button. The right panel is titled "Access Through Your Institution" and contains a text input field labeled "Enter Your Institution's Name" and a "Log In" button. The right panel is highlighted with a red border.

Step 2:

The login interface is shown with a dropdown menu open under the "Access Through Your Institution" panel. The text "shanghai" is entered in the input field. The dropdown menu lists several institutions, with "Shanghai University of Political Science and Law" highlighted by a red box. The left "Log In" panel is also visible.

Step 3:

The screenshot shows the HeinOnline website interface. At the top, there is a dark blue navigation bar with the following items: "MyHein Profile" (with a user icon), "What's New", "Help", "Connect", and "Account". Below the navigation bar is a search bar with a magnifying glass icon and a dropdown menu labeled "All Databases". The main content area is divided into two sections. The top section contains three links: "U.K. Content", "U.S. Federal Content", and "U.S. State Content". The bottom section contains a list of resources with icons: "International Law Association Reports", "Law Academy Project", "Law in Eastern Europe", "Law Library of Congress Reports" (with a green icon), and "Legal Classics". On the right side, a dropdown menu is open, showing the following options: "Shanghai University of Political Science and Law" (highlighted with a red box), "Logout", "Login as different user", "Language", and "Section 508 Compatible".
